THE HOME MISSION MONTHLY

Is an illustrated magazine published by the Woman's Board of Home Missions, and is indispensable to an intelligent comprehension of Woman's work for the evangelization of the Home land. Each number contains fresh letters from the front, abundant material on the topic of the month, together with a carefully arranged programme, and a department of Hints and Helps, which will be found very suggestive in conducting a society. The subscription price is fifty cents per year. Sample copies will be cheerfully sent upon application. Address subscriptions to Miss S. F. Lincoln, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City, N. Y. Address all other communications concerning the magazine to the editor, Mrs. D. E. Finks, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City, N. Y.

OVER SEA AND LAND

Is published jointly by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary organizations of the Presbyterian Church, and is a bright, attractively illustrated magazine for young people. Single copies, thirty-five cents yearly. Five copies or more to one address, twenty-five cents each. Send subscriptions to 1319 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., making all checks and money orders payable to OVER SEA AND LAND.

Orders for any Books for Home Missionary Libraries may be sent to the Literature Department of Home Missions, Room 714, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

ORDER IN ADVANCE.

Letters are frequently received ordering leaflets by return mail. When one reflects that the same mail that brings such an order also brings a hundred other orders, each of which must be opened, carefully read, and the remittances which they contain entered upon the cash book before the orders can be placed in the hands of the leaflet clerk to fill, it will be seen that it is quite impossible to comply with the request. Besides, detention in transmitting by mail is of not infrequent occurrence. All of which leads us to emphasize the desirability and necessity of ordering in advance to be certain of securing supplies at desired dates.

WRITE ITEMS SEPARATELY.

It will greatly facilitate promptness in attending to letters which contain items of business belonging to various departments of the work, if correspondents will place the items on separate slips. For example, if your letter contains an order for leaflets, encloses subscriptions to the Home Mission Monthly, contains inquiries pertaining to mission boxes, or scholarships, or matters relating to the treasury department, please write each of these on separate slips, and enclose in your letter. One check to cover full amount of remittance may be sent.

PRAYER MEETINGS.

The regular Daily Prayer Meeting of the officers and office workers of the Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board of Home Missions is held daily (except Saturday) in the "Board's Room," at 12:45 P.M. Any friends of Home Missions who may find it convenient to attend will be cordially welcomed.

The regular Monthly Prayer Meeting of the Woman's Board of Home Missions will be held in Assembly Room, number 725, on the third Tuesday of each month, except July and August, at 10:30 A.M. All women interested in the work of evangelizing our country are cordially invited to be present.

Illustrated Lectures

BY

Rev. D. E. FINKS.

Choice Stereopticon Slides showing the condition of the many classes in our land, Mexicans, Indians, Alaskans, etc.

This way of representing our Mission work is of such a popular nature that wherever the lecture is presented it never fails to arouse great interest, even among the most indifferent, and increases contributions to the important work of Home Missions.

Particulars concerning engagements and terms can be obtained by addressing Woman's Board of Home Missions, Box 156 Madison Square Branch P. O., New York City.

"As well expect to feed a fire without fuel, as to maintain an interest in Missions without knowledge."

"Consider one another, to provoke to love and good works.
